

Prescriber Information

- H100® is a topical gel to treat Peyronie's Disease
- H100® contains nicardipine, superoxide dismutase and medical grade emu oil
- Double blind pilot study showed statistically significant improvement in all endpoints - decreased curvature, increased stretched penile length and decreased pain
- Only side effect - occasional skin rash
- Dispensed in easy to use, metered dose dispenser
- Apply twice daily to the penile shaft
- Patient performs penile stretching exercises twice daily
- New tissue study demonstrates H100® penetration into tunica tissue in patients with acute and chronic PD
- 3 months use recommended to start. Study shows further benefit with 6 months use
- Easy to order through PD Labs – send in the prescription and they take care of the rest
- Orders can be faxed or sent electronically
- Patient cost $390/ 1 month supply; $870 / 3 months' supply

For general information, FAQ's, study documents and more information on H100® simply visit our website at www.HybridMedical.org

For more information on PD Labs and sending prescriptions please visit www.PDLabsRX.com and click on menu option H100® or go directly to www.pdlabsrx.com/h100